I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free.
I'm following the path that God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, or to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I now found peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace t thee.
God wanted me now.—He set me free.

Obituary

Rev. Arther Fields was born in Allendale, South Carolina on September 30, 1934. He was born to the late Charles and Cattie Fields. He departed for God's Heavenly Kingdom on Tuesday, January 6, 2009 after a short illness.

Rev. Fields was united in holy matrimony to Frances Littles on March 17, 1973. Mr. Fields was a resident of Bulloch County, he was a member of Middleground Church of God where he was a minister. He retired from Heavy and General Labor and Welfare of Newark, N.J. He was a man that loved fishing and visiting the sick and shut in.

He leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife, Frances Fields; daughter Celeste (David) Lundy, two loving grandchildren, Dalphanie and Victoria Francine Lundy, of Statesboro. He raised three boys, William Wyman, of New York, Charles Fields III, of Plainfield, New Jersey, and Bryan Scott, of Plainfield, New Jersey; one brother John Henry (Darlene) Fields, of Jersey City, N.J.; two sisters, Carrie Fields and Kattie Culberth, of Jersey City, N.J.; mother-in-law, Effie Littles, of Statesboro; eight brothers-in-law, ten sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
